

Open records information provided by the Office of the Governor in July 2011

-Over 5,700 pages of documents were released this month

On June 15, 2011, Alex Tuckness, Iowa State University, requested to review all letter sent by the Governor the Chair of the Parole Board regarding inmates who were granted a commutation. These documents were provided on July 14, 2011. There was a charge of $1.70.

On July 26, 2011, our office worked with the State Archives and Governor Vilsack's representative to release all voting applications and decisions from 2011 through July 4, 2005. Over 5,700 pages of documents were provided and there was a charge of $1,078.80. The requestor was Michael Morse from the University of Pennsylvania.